A NEW SERVICE FROM CLIVE LITTIN

Everything and everyone moves so fast these days - time is of the essence! Here's a new Coaching service that keeps up with the times. A mobile Coach who offers you Coaching on the run!

Finding the time in your busy day to drive over to your personal Coach for an hour can be quite a chunk of your morning or afternoon.

No problem. Now I will come to you. At your place of work or any venue that suits you. Cafe? Airport? Office? Hotel? You name it, I'll be there!

Sometimes, you need a bouncing board on the run - between flights or just prior to an important business presentation. Perhaps you feel the need for a debriefing or some facilitation between managers, team members. No problem.

Just call 021 82 00 16 for a quick response.
Think of the time you'll save. Think of the convenience!

I've been Coaching professionally since 1990.
'Nothing beats time in the business.' they say.
Checkout my profile and see what they're saying about me now!
